NO PASSES.

Associate Justice Johnston Takes the Honorable Course,

And One Which Every Judge in Kansas

Should Follow Without Any Further Delay.

JUDGE W. A. JOHNSTON

Has Given Up the Use of Railroad Passes

Since Public Opinion Censured the Custom.

IT IS BETTER FOR ALL.

Mr. Johnston Believes Courts Should Be Above Censure.

The "Journal's" Fight on Passes Bearing Good Fruit.

A reporter for the STATE JOURNAL called upon Justice W. A. Johnston today for his opinion on the general custom of giving and receiving passes, and especially on the use of passes by the judiciary.

Judge Johnston has served the state upon the supreme bench ten years, and has just been elected to another term of six years—while, the reporter reminded him, will reach into the next century.

Several weeks ago, during the campaign, when the JOURNAL was pressing upon public attention what it considered the evils of the use of passes by public officials, Judge Johnston did not express any opinion about it. He had at that time ceased the use of passes. He did not think that political capital should be made, or attempted to be made, by the discussion of this question in the heat of the campaign. But the judge is now free to talk on this subject.

When questioned by the reporter Judge Johnston said: "Yes, I have read what has been said recently by the STATE JOURNAL and other newspapers on the pass question, and have heard some individual expressions about it in this general discussion. I am not sure that the thing, however, that most seriously commands my attention to this question is the fact that I have recently heard expressed by a few litigants in this court, or their attorneys, that the acceptance and use of these favors might prejudice their interests here."

"Do you think the use of passes has improperly influenced public officials?" "The custom of giving passes to officials of high and low degree is almost as old as the state itself. They seem to have been given to county, district and state officials, regardless of politics or their influence on public questions, and not as a favor to any particular class of officers. Given and received in this general way, as they have been in this state without question or objection, I do not think they have in fact exercised an improper influence on any honest, self-respecting official."

"The JOURNAL insists there are special reasons why the judiciary should not accept these favors. What is your opinion of that proposition?"

"Until recently, there has never been expressed any public sentiment against this general custom of giving and receiving passes; but if such sentiment exists, as it now seems, the judiciary should be the first to recognize and be governed by it. There is an inherent wrong in riding on a pass, and no judge who is fit for his high and responsible position will be influenced in the least by it; but if it is a fact that any official could feel that the decisions of a court could be influenced by the use of a pass, then that and every like courtesy should be declined. There is nothing more important and vital to the public welfare than absolute confidence in the integrity and good motives of the courts, nor than the respect for and will ing obedience to their judgments which naturally follow that confidence, and no one appreciates this fact more thoroughly or will be more sensitive to any circumstance that may affect it, than the men who compose the judiciary of the state, no matter to what political party they may belong."

"Judge Johnston, what is your personal practice as to this matter?" "Heretofore, when a pass has been given me in pursuance of the general custom, I have used it without any hesitation, and without any fear of the loss of my own integrity or of the respect and confidence of others. I do not now use passes, and have not used them since I heard, during the past summer, the first serious suggestion from a litigant in this court, or his attorney, that the acceptance of these courtesies might prejudice his interests here."

"While I think there is no inherent wrong in the use of passes as they have been given in this state, and that no honest judge is influenced by such favors, I shall certainly decline the use of them because of the recently expressed objections to their use by the judiciary, that course seeming to me to be the one that will most surely guard against any possible loss or perfect confidence in our courts."

A. A. GODARD NAMED.

He will be the New Assistant Attorney General.

A special dispatch to the STATE JOURNAL from Clay Center, the home of Attorney General Eliot F. B. Dawes reads: "A. A. Godard of Topeka, has been selected assistant attorney general and has accepted."

The new assistant attorney general formerly lived at Clay Center and is a personal friend of Attorney General Dawes.

At the present Mr. Godard is a member of the law firm of Valentine, Godard & Valentine, with offices in the Columbian building. He is a son-in-law of ex-Associate Justice D. M. Valentine, the head of the firm of which he is a member.

This appointment is regarded as a good one.

YALE SURE OF WINNING.

Thousands of Dollars Sent to Cambridge to Get Harvard Taken.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 22.—The eleventh line-up as it will go into the field against Harvard Saturday is as follows: The Hinkley brothers, center, Board and Murphy, tackles; McCrea and Hinkley, guards; Sullivan, center; Adee, quarterback; Thorne and Jerrens, halves; Butterworth, fullback.

Greenway is in low spirits at the orders of his physician, which preclude him from wearing a Yale uniform this year. He has yielded however, and will not play.

Betting here is still lively, but the center seems to be at Cambridge, where most of the Yale money has been shipped to the amount of thousands of dollars. Yale men's confidence in the ability of their representative eleven to win is simply unbounded. The outcome of the annual game is taken as a matter of course. Not a player is out of condition and there is not one who has not been drilled perfectly for his position.

About twenty-five players will go to Springfield on the special train which will leave here Friday afternoon.

Warden Clegg said yesterday that McKane is a model convict and a very valuable man in the building line to have about the prison.

McKane after finishing his day's work for the state, spends two hours every evening writing business letters.

WILL MARRY MONDAY.

The Marriage of the Cox to Mr. Will Take Place Then.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Daily News says it is stated that Czar Alexander left a document to be opened and read after his death. When the document was opened it was found to contain an entreaty to Czar Nicholas to marry Princess Aixa directly after the funeral. Hence the wedding has been fixed to take place on Monday.

It is reported that the czar was disappointed in the apparent coolness of the residents of St. Petersburg. When he discovered the reason he reprimanded the chief of police for ordering windows to be closed and balconies and roofs not to be occupied on the day Czar Alexander's body arrived in the city and on the day of the funeral.

WANT WAR AT ONCE.

Mexico is Anxious for War With Guatemala.

State of Guanajuato Votes Soldiers and Supplies.

VERY BITTER FEELING

Mexican Paper Refers to Guatemala's Black Ingratitude.

Mexican Soldiers Have Proved They Aren't Cowards.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 22.—A special to the Star from Guanajuato, Mex., says: The legislature of this state has unanimously adopted a resolution offering to the federal government all of the state militia and munitions of war in aid of carrying on a war against Guatemala. The feeling of the people of Mexico against Guatemala is very bitter and the general sentiment is in favor of war being declared without further delay.

Mexico City, Nov. 22.—"The Universal" newspaper today contains a very warlike article regarding the Mexican-Guatemalan trouble. It says: "In consequence of the continued attacks against Mexico and her government made by the official Guatemalan press it was rumored yesterday that this country would declare diplomatic relations with Guatemala at an end."

Continuing, it makes the following observations on Mexicans and Mexican fighting qualities: "In Guatemala they say the Mexicans always fled before the Americans and the French. The world knows that the Mexican soldier does not turn his back. Churubusco, Chapultepec, Puebla, etc., are witnesses of that. With Guatemala, we do not expect glory or the gaining of laurels. We have offered them friendship, and they return ingratitude, and our men and our people are not a humor to listen to the diatribes of the Guatemalan press."

DEMOCRATS' QUIET WORK.

Tennessee Republicans Think the State is Being Stolen from Them.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 22.—Chairman Saunders of the Republican state executive committee who yesterday made a second demand upon Secretary of State Morgan for a copy of the returns of the recent state election today received a reply from Mr. Morgan, again declining to comply with the demand.

Mr. Henry McCord, a prominent Democratic politician of Tennessee, has declared that Turney, Democrat, is elected governor, and the withholding of returns from publicity by the board of inspectors causes much anxiety on the part of both Democrats and Republicans.

It is believed the face of the returns in the possession of the secretary of state shows a plurality for Evans.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 22.—The Greenback Living Truth, edited by Judge Whitehead at Greenville, Ala., a popular paper of southern Alabama, is out in a double-headed editorial today on Kolb's proclamation, in which Kolb calls on his followers to help him take the office of governor December 1. The Living Truth says: "This content of Captain Kolb is very remarkable, and to our mind susceptible of but one explanation. Captain Kolb has suffered his mind to dwell on his wrongs until it has been dethroned. He is crazy. We are sorry for him, for he has been badly treated, but the course he now proposes will end in his ignominious overthrow."

NO MORE FREE GOLDFISH.

The Government Has Had to Stop Giving Them Away.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Citizens who apply to the fish commission for goldfish will be doomed to disappointment in the future. The commission has found it necessary to curtail the generous and gratuitous distribution of these fish, which has come, during the past five years, to be a large part of the institution. In the future goldfish will be furnished only to state commissions, to parks and for public uses generally, and will not be given to private applicants.

The custom of giving them away has grown from small beginnings some ten years ago until during the past five seasons the annual output has amounted to about 20,000 fish.

Congressmen began to be sending requests to the commission to furnish friends with a globe of goldfish. Finally it became customary to supply any applicant on the strength of a letter bearing congressional endorsement and the goldfish distribution became as well recognized and popular a service as the gift of a garden seeds to rural voters by the agricultural department. Nearly a third of the houses in the district of Columbia say the officials have been supplied with fresh water stock at government expense.

FOUGHT FOR A CORPSE.

Ottawa Undertakers Quarrel Over the Body of a Man Who Was Shot.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 22.—A special to the Daily News from Ottawa, Kans., says: Charles and Henry Lathrop, Ottawa business men who were out for a time this morning, struck the wrong house, kicking in the door. Charles was shot dead, and Henry was seriously wounded. The coroner gave the corpse to undertaker Sessions, which he engaged an opposition undertaker that he stabled Sessions' wound is serious.

It was the home of Mrs. Sherman, near the river, that the Lathrops tried to enter. Young Ben Sherman warned them to leave or he would shoot. They paid no heed and Ben Sherman blazed away. Mrs. Lathrop wanted Miller & Chalmers, undertakers, to direct the funeral, but Clark & Sessions, having got possession from Dr. Ewing, coroner, refused to give the body up. Hence the second tragedy.

Governor Leavelle will consent to do this and the Populist senate will confirm the appointment. Senator Kelly will be a member of the board of charities for three years unless removed for cause.

R. M. Ray stated that just before the killing, Johnson made an attempt to draw his revolver on Little under the elevated road and Little walked away saying he wanted no trouble with Johnson. Johnson was drinking and said he always went fixed for Little.

BRICE WOULDN'T TALK.

Said There Wasn't Anything Unusual About His Meeting Gorman and Others.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Senator Brice of Ohio, would not talk today about the statement published in a morning paper to the effect that at a conference between Senators Gorman, Jones, of Arkansas, Butler, of South Carolina, and himself yesterday it had been decided to oppose the passage of the so-called popgun tariff bill at the next session of congress.

Senator Brice would only say that there was nothing unusual in a party of senatorial friends who happened to be in the city at the same time spending an hour together talking over senatorial or other affairs.

BANKERS TO TAKE ALL.

N. Y. Financial Houses Will Buy All the Bonds.

They Will Buy the Whole $50,000,000 It is Said.

THE GOLD PREMIUM.

Wall Street Men Attach No Significance to It.

Gold Withdrawals from the Treasury Not Alarming Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—It is announced that the banks and other financial institutions in this city will subscribe for the entire issue of $50,000,000 five per cent bonds.

President Stewart of the United States Trust company, announced that subscriptions to a full amount of the new gold loan will be made by the banks and other financial institutions of this city. The bids will not be made by a syndicate, but each institution will bid for a certain amount, but the bids, however, will be at the same price, the figures of which were withheld.

The aggregate of the subscriptions from this city will therefore considerably exceed the $50,000,000. The negotiations which have led up to this result has only just been concluded. It is stated by the Bank of Commerce that that bank is ready to accommodate its customers with all the gold they require for the new bond issue. No gold has been withdrawn from the treasury today and there has been no purchases of gold at a premium of any kind.

The attempt to create an impression that the sale of gold at a small premium has some significance, has not borne fruit in Wall street. A reporter for the Associated Press talked with the leading bullion brokers of the city today and they unite in declaring that no importance is to be attached to the fact that a few small sales of gold have been made at a trifling premium.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Up to 1:30 p. m. the treasury officials had received notice of the withdrawals from the sub-treasury at New York and as none was made yesterday it is hoped that the worst is over. The fact that only something over $5,000,000 has been taken out of the gold reserve is not of itself of very great significance when it is recalled that during the pendency of the last issue there were practically no withdrawals until the subscriptions had been awarded and the time had come for payment.

It is thought to be not unlikely that the large bids will be offered and the withdrawals of gold to meet them made contingent on their acceptance.

The danger of heavy gold losses cannot be said to have passed until the bidders have all settled their accounts. Bids continue to come in in numbers, but notwithstanding the specific direction of the secretary in his circular to the effect that all bids must be sealed and marked "proposals for the purchase of 5 per cent bonds," many of the bidders have ignored this direction and, as a consequence, their bids will be thrown out as irregular.

Nearly all of these, however, are for very small amounts and, aside from the disappointment which their rejection will cause to intended purchasers, it is not a matter of serious regret.

GOLD TO BUY BONDS.

Wall Street Agencies Revolving Money to Subscribe for the Government Loan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The New York agency of a large Canadian institution has received from its correspondents at San Francisco $250,000 in gold within the last two days and $500,000 in gold has been shipped by the bank of Montreal to its agency in this city, for the purpose of subscribing to the government loan.

A Wall street banking firm with Paris and San Francisco connections, is also receiving small parcels of gold from California.

EIGHT INDICTMENTS.

Made by the Grand Jury—Two Arrests Have Been Made.

The grand jury returned two indictments at 2:30 this afternoon. Six indictments were returned last evening, but as only two arrests have been made the details of the other indictments are not published at present. The two arrests in question were made at noon today by Sheriff Burdge, Walter Hillis and J. H. Cook, charged with running a gambling house, were the victims. They were arrested at the National hotel, where they have been boarding for several months. It is charged that they operated on east Seventh street. They will probably be able to give bond.

Only one of the remainder of the indictments is for selling liquor.

LOCAL MENTION.

George, Painter of the Rock Island general passenger office was called to Dixon, Ill., this morning by the serious illness of his mother.

Charley Cason, a colored man, got drunk last night and by way of a joke went whipped his wife. He has been arrested and will be tried before Justice Grover.

Ed. Wright and A. Brown, who smashed Wm. Tucker on the night of the ratification, were tried in Justice Chesney's court this morning. Brown pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs, $29.15 in all. Wright was fined the same.

John Spoud is a Swede. There is a good deal that is American about John, however, and he has furnished a very funny item for the comic papers. Last night John whipped his mother-in-law. He has been arrested and will be tried before Justice Grover.

Another Grave Robber Arrested. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 22.—The Cotner detective agency, Prof. J. W. Ward and D. S. Nelson, A. S. Ross, D. H. Roberts, R. J. Alexander, J. A. Burford and J. E. Walter, arrested last night on a charge of body snatching, were arraigned this morning before County Judge Lansing. Chancellor Dungan was today added to the list.

WILL TALK "OLEO."

The Dairyman Will Talk About Shutting Their Eyes on the State of the Market.

The morning meeting of the Kansas Dairyman's association at representative hall today was very interesting. This is the second day of the meeting but there are not more than sixty people in attendance.

It took the meeting nearly an hour this morning to decide in regard to the judges to award the prizes for the best butter, cheese, etc. It was finally decided by the chair appointing C. F. Dexter of Chicago and W. Chamberlain of New York, to select a third to assist them in deciding on the butter. C. Stevenson of Table Rock, Nebraska, was made judge of the cheese.

This disposed of Wm. Sutton opened the discussion on "Hand Separator." The discussion lasted till everybody was hungry and ready to go home and then a motion was introduced to allow Mr. Monrad of the National Dairyman of Kansas City to present the entire report of the association with 1,000 copies for distribution. The discussion lasted an hour.

At the meeting this afternoon the principal topic of conversation will be the adoption of some idea and the framing of an act for presentation at the next session of the legislature to compel oleomargarine manufacturers to color their goods any color excepting the rich yellow that goes with pure butter. They can leave it white if they want to, but it must not look like creamery butter.

The law will probably also compel all places using oleomargarine to placard the fact. If this law is passed it will of course make necessary a state officer to look after the enforcement of the law, and this will give some good partisan dairyman a job. The expenses of the new office will probably be $5,000 a year.

Tonight's meeting will be a relaxation from the arduous duties of discussion, for it will be a musical meeting. The Moders will sing, and there will be other amusements.

The cloak room of the hall is full to overflowing with butter and cheese. There have been fifty-five entries for the butter contest, and five for the cheese contest. The butter is all excellent and so is the cheese, and some of the brie cheeses could be discovered without much difficulty by a veteran detective.

A great deal of interest is being developed in one of the contests offered by the Sharpley company of Council Bluffs. It is $10 for the handsomest butternut in the state. There are any quantity of entries but it is thought to be more particularly between Mr. Monrad of the Dairyman, Mr. Jones of Topeka and Secretary Brandt, with the chances in favor of the latter.

The awards will be made tomorrow, and the election of officers will occur then also. A. E. Jones of Topeka is a prominent candidate.

BRAND FROM THE BURNING.

Wm. Baker the Only Populist Congressman Saved from the Burning.

Congressman Wm. Baker stopped in Topeka today. He is on his way to Washington to be present when congress convenes on December 3.

Mr. Baker was the only Populist congressman elected in Kansas at the recent election.

"The result of the recent election was not a surprise to me," said he to a JOURNAL reporter. "I warned both John Davis and Jerry Simpson that there was danger, but they wouldn't listen to me. Davis was especially confident, but he realizes now that they have been deceived. I knew that capital had issued its edict that the People's party must be crushed and the result was felt here in the election. I feel sure that the People's party is not dead in Kansas and I am ready to assert that we will have a larger vote in Kansas in two years than we ever had."

"You will miss your co-laborers in congress Mr. Baker?" "Yes I shall miss them, but I look at it this way. The Republican party has some very brilliant men in congress, Reed being the leader; then there is Erisp trial to its agency in this city, for the purpose of subscribing to the government loan.

A Wall street banking firm with Paris and San Francisco connections, is also receiving small parcels of gold from California.

The grand jury returned two indictments at 2:30 this afternoon.
